

National Workshop on Oral History

A special two-day pre-colloquium workshop for persons interested in beginning oral history programs.

THURSDAY, November 9

10:00 a.m. Registration

Lobby, Thompson Conference Center

1:00 p.m. Opening Session-Conference Center Auditorium

Welcome

Charles T. Morrissey

Oral History: A New Dimension Joe B. Frantz

Preparing for the Interview
Willa K. Baum and Thomas L. Charlton

Interviewing Techniques
Amelia R. Fry and Charles W. Crawford

How to Handle Sensitive Topics
William R. Wyatt and Ronald E. Marcello

(Refreshments will be available between ses-

7:00 p.m. Dinner—Dining Room, Thompson Conference

8:00 p.m. Oral History Round Table—Conference Center Auditorium

The Oral History Movement in the United States Charles T. Morrissey

Authenticity of Oral History Forrest C. Poque

Research Use of Oral History Louis M. Starr

FRIDAY, November 10

7:30 a.m. Breakfast, Club Caravan, Villa Capri Motel

9:00 a.m. Round Table Continued—Conference Center Auditorium

Transcribing, Editing, and Indexing Willa K. Baum

Cataloging, Servicing, and Using the Collection Gary L. Shumway

Establishing an Oral History Program Thomas L. Charlton

Your Equipment Bob Lumpkin

12:00 Noon Luncheon—Dining Room, Thompson Conference Center

(The two opening sessions of the Colloquium are the concluding sessions of the Oral History Workshop.)

The Seventh National Colloquium On Oral History

COLLOQUIUM

FRIDAY, November 10

10:00 a.m. Executive Council Meeting Library, Thompson Conference Center

10:00 a.m. Registration
Lobby, Thompson Conference Center
(The two opening sessions of the Colloquium are the concluding sessions of the Oral History Workshop.)

1:30 p.m. Legal Problems in Oral History—Conference Center Auditorium

> Joseph Romney, Department of History California State Polytechnic College

William Weinberg, Appalachian Oral History Project, Alice Lloyd College

3:00 p.m. Oral History and the Disappearing Landscape of Rural America—Conference Center Auditorium

Edward Ives, Department of Anthropology University of Maine

B. Eliot Wigginton, President Southern Highlands Literary Fund William Wyatt, Rushmore Research

5:00 p.m. Social Hour and Get-Acquainted Party 8th Floor Conference Room, Lyndon Baines Johnson Library

Rapid City, South Dakota

6:00 p.m. Dinner—Dining Room Thompson Conference Center

> Black History, Oral History and Genealogy Alex Haley, author of The Autobiography of Malcolm X

9:30 p.m. Social Mixer-Envoy Room, Villa Capri Motel

SATURDAY, November 11

8:00 a.m. Breakfast Session—Club Caravan, Villa Capri Motel

> The Role of Oral History in the Approaching Bicentennial of the American Revolution

Samuel Proctor, Editor Florida Historical Quarterly

(Coffee will be available between sessions.)

9:00 a.m. Concurrent Sessions

10:00 a.m. How Cameras Can be Used with Tape Recorders in Oral History Interviewing—Conference Center Auditorium

> L. Jack Hurley, Oral History Research Office Memphis State University

Preparing Oral History Tapes and Transcripts for Research Use—Room 2-120, Conference Center

John Stewart, Assistant Director John F. Kennedy Library 10:00 a.m. Concurrent Sessions

11:00 a.m. How Cameras Can be Used with Tape Recorders in Oral History Interviewing—Conference Center

L. Jack Hurley, Oral History Research Office Memphis State University

Preparing Oral History in Tapes and Transcripts for Research Use—Room 2-120, Conference Center

John Stewart, Assistant Director John F. Kennedy Library

10:00 a.m. Oral History as a Teaching Tool—Room 2-122, to Conference Center

12:00 Noon
William Cutler, Department of History
Temple University

Barbara Gallant, Gainesville High School Gainesville, Florida

Edward Ives, Department of Anthropology University of Maine

B. Eliot Wigginton, President Southern Highlands Literary Fund

Tape recording equipment will be displayed throughout the Workshop and Colloquium in Parlor A, Villa Capri Motel. Manufacturers' representatives will be present to demonstrate the equipment.

12:00 Noon Buffet Lunch—Dining Room Thompson Conference Center

1:00 p.m. Concurrent Sessions

Financial Support for Oral History Projects: A Round Table Discussion of Foundations, Government Agencies, and Other Sources of Funding —Conference Center Auditorium

> Moderator: Elizabeth Calciano Regional History Project University of California at Santa Cruz

> Panel: Members of the Oral History Association

Interpretative Oral History: Application of Oral History for Non-Research Uses—Room 2-120 Conference Center

William Weaver, National Park Service Cherokee, North Carolina

2:45 p.m. Buses depart from the Villa Capri Motel for a tour of the Texas Hill Country with stops at the Lyndon B. Johnson birthplace, boyhood home, and the LBJ State Park. A tour of the LBJ Ranch is pending.

For those not desiring to take the bus trip, a session will be scheduled at the Villa Capri Motel. Transportation will be available to take these people to the LBJ State Park for the business session.

5:30 p.m. Texas-Style Barbecue, LBJ State Park

7:30 p.m. Annual Business Meeting, Oral History Association
Auditorium, LBJ State Park

9:30 p.m. Discussion: Goals and Services of the Oral History Association

11:00 p.m. Buses return to Austin

SUNDAY, November 12

8:00 a.m. Breakfast Session—Ambassador Room, Villa Capri Motel

A Report on The New York Times Oral History Micropublication Program

Chester Lewis, Director of Archives
The New York Times

(Coffee will be available between sessions.)

9:00 a.m. Oral History and Latin American Studies—Conference Center Auditorium

> Lyle Brown, Department of Political Science Baylor University

> Eugenia, Meyer, Instituto Nacional de Anthropologia e Historia, Mexico City

10:15 a.m. Oral History and Black Studies

Lawrence Goodwyn, Department of History Duke University

Ann Allen Shockley, Black Oral History Program, Fisk University

11:30 a.m. Oral History and Indian Studies

Joseph Cash and Herbert Hoover, American Indian Research Project, University of South Dakota

Mary Patrick, Program for Oral History Baylor University

1:00 p.m. Concluding Luncheon—Ambassador Room, Villa Capri Motel

What is the Future of the Oral History Association?

John Wickman, Director, Dwight D. Eisenhower Library, President-Elect, Oral History Association

2:30 p.m. Adjournment

3:00 p.m. Check-out

Workshop Faculty

Willa K. Baum, Director Regional Oral History Office University of California at Berkeley

Thomas L. Charlton, Director Program for Oral History Baylor University

Charles W. Crawford, Director Oral History Research Office Memphis State University

Joe B. Frantz, Director Oral History Project The University of Texas at Austin

Amelia R. Fry, Director Earl Warren Oral History Project University of California at Berkeley

Bob Lumpkin Educational Consultant Education Equipment Company

Ronald E. Marcello, Coordinator Oral History Collection North Texas State University

Charles T. Morrissey, Director Oral History Project The Ford Foundation

Forrest C. Pogue, Director George C. Marshall Research Foundation Lexington, Virginia

Gary L. Shumway, Director Oral History Program California State University at Fullerton

Louis M. Starr, Director Oral History Research Office Butler Library Columbia University

William R. Wyatt Rushmore Research Rapid City, South Dakota

Local Arrangements Committee

Ken Ragsdale, Director of Educational Services Texas State Historical Association Austin, Texas

Thomas L. Charlton, Director Program for Oral History Baylor University Waco, Texas

Dorman H. Winfrey, Director and Librarian Texas State Library Austin, Texas Oral History Association Box 20, Butler Library, Columbia University New York, New York 10027

Officers

President
Charles T. Morrissey, Director
Oral History Project, The Ford Foundation
New York, New York

Vice President John E. Wickman, Director Dwight D. Eisenhower Library Abilene, Kansas

Secretary Amelia R. Fry, Regional Oral History Office University of California Berkeley, California

Treasurer
Knox Mellon, Director
Oral History Project
Department of History
Immaculate Heart College
Los Angeles, California

Council

Charles W. Crawford, Director Oral History Research Office Memphis State University Memphis, Tennessee

Lila M. Johnson, Head Audio-Visual Library Minnesota Historical Society St. Paul, Minnesota

Samuel Proctor, Director Oral History Program University of Florida Gainesville, Florida

Oral History Newsletter

James V. Mink, Editor Archivist and Director of Oral History University of California Los Angeles, California

1972 Colloquium

Colloquium Chairman
Joe B. Frantz, Director
Oral History Project
The University of Texas at Austin

Program Chairmen
Workshop
Truett Latimer, Executive Director
Texas State Historical Survey Committee
Austin, Texas

Colloquium
Ronald E. Marcello, Coordinator
Oral History Collection
North Texas State University
Denton, Texas

on courth topes (Hold) Loe Cark - S.D. unterneur Haberema are agento of the ". heaten 2) scholuly oppuratus of 1) maline meestegeline zommalim Goodum - gred. seninar et Helberg in America is a Liber myth tald by the while tubt, " Lowrence Gooderin Eli Lalle The brighest memony will never